

Practice Quiz #2

Nomen: Answer Key

Datum: _____

Part 1: Grammar

Please decline each noun fully.

1. cibus, -i, m. - food

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	cibus	cibi
Genitive	cibi	ciborum
Dative	cibo	cibis
Accusative	cibum	cibos
Ablative	cibo	cibis

2. penna, -ae, f. - feather

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	penna	pennae
Genitive	pennae	pennarum
Dative	pennae	pennis
Accusative	pennam	pennas
Ablative	penna	pennis

Please correctly identify the declension of each noun:

3. colonus, -i, m.: 2nd declension

4. tabula, -ae, f.: 1st declension

5. agricola, -ae, m.: 1st ~~declension~~ declension

6. hortus, -i, m.: 2nd declension

Part 2: Vocabulary

Please decline the English definition for each Latin word:

7. sed: but

8. saluto, salutare: to greet

9. voco, vocare: to call
10. laetus, -a, -um: happy
11. laudo, laudare: to praise

Please give all the correction Latin forms for each English word:

12. to prepare: paro, parare
13. to tell: narro, narrare
14. to praise: laudo, laudare
15. ready: paratus, -a -um

Part 3: Translation

a. Please translate the following sentences into proper English.

b. Please underline, in each sentence, every nominative noun once, and every accusative noun twice.

1. Quintus, ubi Flaccus filium ad agrum vocat, mox currit.

Quintus, when Flaccus calls his son to the field, soon runs.

2. Quintus olivas ad Flaccum portat, deinde in casam redit.

Quintus carries olives to Flaccus, then he returns into the house.

3. In casâ, Scintilla cenam parat. Quintus et Flaccus cibum celeriter consumunt.

In the house, Scintilla prepares dinner. Quintus and Flaccus quickly eat the food.